A Labor Day Theology (Vicki Kemper)

Listen! The wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. You have lived on the earth in luxury and in pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. You have condemned and murdered the righteous one, who does not resist you.

- James 5:4-6

This is not just another speech against the rich, even though the Bible is full of them, and James (maybe a brother of Jesus) warns "rich people" to "weep and wail for the miseries" coming their way. And it is also not just another exhortation to fair labor practices, though the Bible is full of those, too.

No, if we read the passage again, we will notice the connection James makes between how workers are treated and how we honor Christ. We can also see how James compares the exploitation of laborers with the execution of the Suffering Servant, Jesus on the cross. When it comes to theology, James is known to be the opposite of the apostle Paul. Paul emphasizes that we are saved by grace alone and James, on the other hand, feels that faith without works is dead. But there's more: While Paul warns that the consequences of sin would be our death if it wasn't for Christ, James goes further, saying that the sin of low wages kills Christ again, and again. That's some pretty serious Labor Day theology.

Now, most of us are not "rich oppressors." We don't employ many people or set pay scales for large corporations. And yet: We do decide where to buy our food and do our shopping. We can research the labor practices of the businesses we patronize. We can actively support legislation to increase the federal minimum wage and improve conditions for farmworkers.

And if we're among the many workers being treated unjustly, we can know that Christ works alongside us and joins our struggle for justice. And the next time any of us gets paid, we can give thanks for a Savior who cares about what's on our check, or our direct deposit.

With Labor Day around us, may these words from the letter of James remind us that justice never takes a holiday but remind us to see Christ in all workers. Labor Day is also a good day to honor and say thanks to everyone who serves the common good by their hard work. And to remember those who are without work and all what a job means in our lives. May, Christ the Laborer, teach us how to do all our work for God.

With Love,

Co DuToit

Get Ready for Rally Day!

Rally Day on Sunday, September 9 marks the beginning of the Sunday School year. Sunday School registration takes place before the 9:30am worship service, and ice cream sundaes will be served after the service. We are starting to make plans for 2018-2019 Sunday School year and would like to extend an invitation to all to participate in our Ministry. Please let Chris Thomas at: cthomas5688@mindspring.com or Sue Almerigi know at: sewnspark@sbcglobal.net if you are interested. ### Registration Open for Autumn Adult Retreat

The 2018 Autumn Adult Retreat will be held at Tower Hill Camp beginning Friday evening, September 28, and concluding at noon on Sunday, September 30. Adults of all ages and stages of life are cordially invited to share a weekend for spiritual renewal through interesting discussions, lively conversations, singing, Bible Study, and fellowship with people from different churches and communities. The topic for this year's Retreat is "The Place of Faith Along the Ever Changing and Challenging Journey of Life." Throughout the journey of life people face life-changing, life-altering experiences that can be quite challenging. And it is during such moments that people rely on their faith to provide perspective, understanding, balance, and meaning. The Retreat will focus on New Testament scriptures to personally discover the importance of living the Christian faith and values in positive ways as inspired by Bible stories, personal experiences and relationships, and within today's world. There will be plenty of time to relax, enjoy the beautiful forests, dunes and beaches, and free time on Saturday afternoon to explore nearby shops and attractions. Each Retreat creates new friendships, happy experiences, and lasting memories. This gently structured, intellectually challenging, and emotionally satisfying weekend retreat is designed to renew your faith, refresh your spirits and send you home ready to come back next year. To register for the Autumn Adult Retreat (Camp # 275), please call the Outdoor Ministry Office at 815-447-2390. For additional information or ride-sharing, contact Rev. Dr. William G. Grice, III 847-269-8353 email: revwgg3@gmail.com; or Janet C. Thompson 847-989-4887 email: jct216@gmail.com. Everyone is welcome.

Thanks to those volunteers that helped load a truckful of metal for recycling in August – 6,800 lbs. worth! Since our metal recycling program began in 2011, we have collected and recycled more than 157,000 lbs. of metal and raised more than $22,500 for various church missions and ministries.

Music & Drama Ministry

Bells, Bells...I Hear Bells...

It's that time of year when our church handbell choir looks high and low for more ringers. Have you been thinking about trying something new? Or, perhaps you used to play bells but haven't done so in a long while. This could be your year! Come and join the fun for an hour of fellowship (and light aerobics) at 7:30pm on Mondays at church. Questions? Contact Ellen Alde at 847/297-3231.

Can You Carry A Tune?

Choir season is underway but there's still time for new singers to join! Chancel Choir will sing for the first time on Rally Day on September 9. The Choir will meet at 8:45am in preparation for the service. Also, if you are interested in being in this year's Christmas Cantata, it is called Lead Me Back to Bethlehem by Pepper Choplin. The Cantata will most likely fall on a Sunday evening in December. We encourage family and friends to participate even if they don't regularly attend our church services. Also, if you can't attend our Wednesday night rehearsals but would like to be a part of the Cantata, please let us know as we will set up special rehearsals for you. If you don't consider yourself a singer but would like to help out, please get in touch with us as there might be a couple of things for you to do to help us during the run of the Cantata. There will be one or two rehearsals, a day or two before the Cantata is performed, to include singers that aren't a part of our weekly practices. Rehearsal CD's also will be available. Rehearsals for Joyful Noise and Voices of Inspiration will be determined later. For further information, contact Scott Emerick at 708/244-3286 or scott\_alan\_emerick@yahoo.com.

The Music & Drama Ministry wishes to thank Marcia Urban again for her leadership in directing our Chancel Choir during Scott's absence. God Bless!

Financial Report

During Fiscal 2018, which ended on June 30, we had total income in our Church's general fund of $322,358 and expenses of $304,575. This compares to a budget of $324,150. Special thanks to church members and friends who gave of their financial resources to meet and exceed their pledges - and who gave of their time and talents in many fundraising efforts throughout the year. And special recognition and thanks to our church staff and Ministries, who continued to do more with less, to maintain and expand church programs in our building, the community, and beyond. The Finance Committee is pleased to report that at year end, we were able to add $17,783 to our Contingency Fund to cover possible future budget shortfalls and future staff recognition/appreciation expenses.

Craft & Vendor Sale This Month

Please join us at this year's Craft & Vendor Sale, being held at our church on Saturday, September 22, from 9 am to 3:00 pm. Together, we can help make this year's event bigger and better than ever!

Crafters & Vendors: If you're a crafter or a direct sale vendor, there are still a limited number of tables available. Reserve yours today. Six-foot tables are $30; eight-foot tables are $40. Access to electricity is just $10 more. Contact Daisy Farley at 847-602-9069 or by email at craftvendorfccdp@gmail.com with questions or to reserve a spot.

Volunteers Needed: Not selling at the Fair? We need volunteers all day long, but especially to help with set-up (from 7:30 to 9:00 am) and with clean-up (from 2:30 to 4:00 pm). Contact Daisy or the church office if you can help.

Bakers Wanted: The Evening Circle is once again coordinating the bake sale, but everyone in the congregation is asked to help by baking. Baked goods can be dropped off in the church kitchen on Friday. Please label items as to whether or not nuts are included, but there's no need to cut or divide into portions.

Come and Shop! Most important of all, we want to increase the number of shoppers at this year's event. Invite your friends, relatives, neighbors and co-workers. In addition to crafts, seasonal decorations, and a variety of personal and household items, there will be yummy treats at the bake sale, as well and lunch and other treats available throughout the day.

Bulletin Board of Bills

The Bulletin Board of Bills will continue through the first week in September, so there's still time to participate. Church attendance and offerings sometimes go down over the summer months, but our bills continue to come in. You can help us keep up with expenses by making a donation to cover one of our typical church bills this summer. On the Bulletin Board (located on the wall between the church office and the sanctuary) you can choose from a variety of bills ranging from just a few dollars to a hundred dollars or more. Simply take the bill that you're able to cover and write a check, payable to FCCDP, for the amount due. Then bring it to the church office or drop it in the offering plate on Sunday morning.

Church Fundraising Calendar

We are currently assembling a calendar of all fundraisers planned by Church Ministries, committees and organizations during Fiscal 2018-2019. This calendar will be submitted to the Church Council for approval at the September meeting. It's important that the calendar includes all planned fundraisers so we can be sure that multiple groups aren't planning events for the same date. If you have not yet submitted your fundraising plans, please drop them in the Finance box in the church office or email to surry1024@comcast.net by Monday, September 17.

Personnel Committee

Best Wishes, Nathan!

Please join us in Webster Hall after the 9:30am worship service on Sunday, September 9. Special refreshments will be served in honor of our accompanist, Nathan Canfield, as we wish him well on his last Sunday with us.

Sharon Urry on the job at Wrigley Field.

Did You Know: Retirement = Dream Job for this Church Member!

(Submitted by Sharon Urry after much persuading)

As I was nearing the end of a 45-year career in banking and insurance marketing, people would ask me, "What are you going to do when you retire?" Without missing a beat I would say, "I'd like to work for the Chicago Cubs." I've been a Cubs fan my whole life. In the mid-1950's, my mother and grandmother would take my brother and me to Cubs games on Ladies' Day. In the 1960's, my friends and I would take the Addison Street bus down to Wrigley Field and sit in the bleachers (when it only cost $1). I took my oldest son Ken to his first Cubs game when he was just three months old. Throughout the years, one of my favorite things to do was to take in a Cubs game. I've been to spring training in Arizona a half-dozen times, and there was a stretch where I attended Cubs Opening Day for about 20 years in a row!

I retired from my full-time job in 2016 and in early 2017 I went on-line and applied to work for the Cubs. After a series of interviews, I was hired as a part-time Security Services Ambassador. I have a different job every day, working in all areas of the park. But whatever my assignment, my primary responsibility is to "help create lasting memories and enable every fan who enters the Friendly Confines to have a great experience." That's easy. I love sharing my love of the Cubs with others. Two of my favorite things are talking to fans from other states and other countries who are visiting Wrigley Field for the first time and are just thrilled to be here. And, seeing all the young families who hold their babies up, so I can take a picture of them with the Wrigley Field Marquee in the background.

There are 81 baseball games (plus more for the playoffs!) and 10 concerts each year at Wrigley Field. I have to work a minimum of half of them. I've shivered on the concourse during snowy games in April and sweated in the bleachers on sunny, 95-degree days in July. The job entails standing and/or walking for 6-7 hours a day. Some days I can catch glimpses of the game; other days I don't see a single pitch. But I can honestly say, there's no place I'd rather be!

Happy Birthday to You!!

In Memoriam

Rev. Garry Scheuer

August 9, 2018

(Reprinted in part) The Reverend Dr. Garry Albert Scheuer, Jr. departed this world in peace on August 9, 2018. He was born to Garry Scheuer, Sr. and Eleanor Scheuer on April 17, 1934 in Cleveland, Ohio and was younger brother to Don Scheuer. From an early age, and in partnership with Carolyn, his loving and devoted wife of 62 years, he lived a life of devotion to Christ and the Gospel, rooted in service and ministry to others, full of the love and compassion to which God calls us. From 1971-1979, he served as Senior Minister of First Congregational Church in Des Plaines, Illinois. During his time in Des Plaines, he appeared as a host and interviewer for a faith-focused news and perspective television program on NBC, one highlight of which was the opportunity to interview Dr. Norman Vincent Peale. He also began his decades of service to Kiwanis International while in Des Plaines and wrote and published a book of non-fictional faith stories, entitled God in Our Lives. Above all things, Garry cherished and nurtured his family. Even while meeting the demands of a busy career, he always managed to make time for his spouse, kids, grandkids, great-grandkids and friends who had been adopted as extended family. He is survived by Carolyn Scheuer, his wife of 62 years; son Garry Scheuer III (wife Sheree), daughters Markay Suevel (husband Eric), Terri Zinke, Christine Molinowski (husband Stephen) and Shawn Killebrew (husband James), and son Paul Scheuer (wife Betsy); grandsons Ken Scheuer, Joshua Suevel, Justin Suevel, Ryan Suevel, Garrett Zinke, Trey Zinke, Levi Zinke, Mark Killebrew, Addison Killebrew, Parker Killebrew, Joseph Scheuer and Samuel Scheuer; granddaughters Korissa Calcagno, Sierra Walsh, Brittany Ramsdell, Savannah Molinowski, Emily Molinowski and Lindsey Arn; great-grandsons Michael Hawkins, Devin Hawkins, Kyler Baker, Henry Calcagno and Whitman Walsh, and great-granddaughters Kylee Baker, and Harper Calcagno. A Life Celebration was held in Sun City Center, FL on August 18.

“PLEASE, WON’T YOU BE MY NEIGHBOR?”

There used to be a program which aired on PBS; Mr. Roger’s Neighborhood. Fred Rogers was a friendly, non-threatening-presence, who helped children, as well as adults, cope with things that they experienced in the world; many of which they found frightening. At the opening of each episode, he sang a little ditty, inviting all to be his neighbor, “It’s a beautiful day in the neighborhood. It’s a beautiful day for a neighbor. Would you be mine? Could you be mine?”

In similar fashion, Altadena Community Church in Altadena, CA wanted to know their neighbors better as well as tackle the sensitive subject matter of mental illness. So, in October 2017, they offered a free Mental Health First Aid Training for community leaders and first responders, sponsored in part with a Neighbors in Need Grant. 25 people registered.

The church’s leadership wanted to raise the communities awareness of mental health with the hope of reducing the stigma associated with it. Issues of public safety were to be addressed; hence the leadership at Altadena Community Church believed that providing mental health first aid training could prove beneficial for all.

“Awareness of mental health as a justice issue has grown in the congregation”, said Associate Pastor, Kelli Parrish Lucas. Furthermore, she stated “there is a growing awareness in the church that there is need to distinguish between actual danger and acute mental health symptoms which some may perceive as potential dangers or something to fear. The Mental Health First Aid Trainings have prompted congregational awareness that there are safe ways to engage in situations that involve mental health crises.” Many participating agreed.

One participant who attended the free two-half day training sessions had this to say about it, “Thank you so much for this training. I have already told others about it and I think it is a very essential training to do and partake in.”

When asked whether the discussion on disability awareness and justice, added or detracted, from the topic of mental health, another attendee replied, “This was my favorite discussion. Because I deal with this on a daily basis, it was easy for me to provide my input on the subject. With relation to mental health, I think it was a good conversation to have.”

From our Historian, Nancy Meyer

We were all saddened to learn of the passing of our former Senior Minister, Rev. Garry Scheuer on August 9, 2018 in Florida. I have a hard time realizing he and his family (Carolyn and the “six pack”) began ministering at FCCDP 46 years ago. During his eight years here, many ideas and programs were introduced. I’m sure I’ll miss some but here we go:

- The practice of having lay liturgists read the scripture during morning worship
- PF taking spring trips, the first to Padre Island in Texas
- Two-year Confirmation Program for high school students
- The FCC Foundation was organized to provide for endowments and bequests
- PF Steak and Lobster Dinners were introduced to raise funds for future spring trips
- Saturday Couples Group was organized for fun and fellowship
- Members accompanied Rev. Garry & Carolyn Scheuer on two trips to the Holy Land
- For the Bicentennial July 4 parade, FCC built a float -- replica of the Mayflower
- A Korean Congregation started worshipping in our sanctuary each Sunday afternoon
- Prayer Cards were used in worship for the first time in 1976
- Maundy Thursday presentation reenacting the Last Supper first presented in 1977
- In 1977 the children’s choir began the custom of holding a spring musical
- Telephone Ministry introduced so homebound people could dial in & hear live service
- Children’s Board started Balloon Sunday, eventually stopped by environmental concerns

To quote from the Des Plaines Journal 8/15/18, “Though Rev. Garry Scheuer moved on from First Congregational Church in Des Plaines in 1979 after eight years as pastor, his legacy lives on in the building’s stained glass window.” Rev. Scheuer designed the Rainbow Window above the doorway of the West Entrance. He had described his inspiration for the subject matter in these words: For me (the rainbow) is confirmation of the past, blessing of the present, and hope of the future. From the ancient Noah covenant, to the challenge of the prophets, to the revelation of the Gospel, the rainbow symbolizes the grace and power of God. It brings color and beauty to overshadow judgment and offers hope in the midst of conflict.

Rev. Scheuer is survived by Carolyn Scheuer, his wife of 62 years; son Garry Scheuer III (wife Sheree), daughters Markay Suevel (husband Eric), Terri Zinke, Christine Molinowski (husband Stephen) and Shawn Killebrew (husband James), and son Paul Scheuer (wife Betsy); 12 grandsons, 6 granddaughters, 5 great-grandsons and 2 great-granddaughters.

Please contact me if you’d like a copy of his complete obituary.
